This scenario is for characters beginning at 5th level under normal difficulty. If your characters not 5th level you may want to turn the difficulty up or down.

This scenario is part 1 of a trilogy; part 2, titled "War in the Sword Lands", should be out this late fall 1999 or early Y2K. Part 3, "Wrath of the Mind Lords" will be forthcoming after that.

Although all the bugs are supposed to have been flushed out, one may never be 100% certain about that (sigh).

To help you start, follow this clue: go directly to Arany's and enter the Wildboar Inn. Look around the place, for you may meet interesting folks, even buy yourself some info (and good food and drinks!). You could even find a key which will allow you to see more of the place, even maybe find a gate pass which would allow you to go and see the Lord of Arany's. In any event, always make sure you are in search mode or that you have a detect secret spell active: these help a lot! (wink).

Enjoy!
